Your College Update

Update from Dayo

Hello! I am Dayo Oladiti, your Social Sciences and Arts (SSA) College Officer for 2022-2023. Firstly, I'd like to say a big thank you to everyone who voted in the March Elections; we were able to break old and set new Election records!

This year I hope to engage more with you and get our voices and opinions heard in all the important places. My manifesto for this year includes:

1. Implementation of learning contracts
2. Sustainability
3. Reducing degree awarding gap
4. Promoting EDI in all academic and non-academic activities of the College
5. Promoting skills sharing and inter-departmental relations among student groups
6. Improving general student welfare
7. Promoting creation and participation of academic and social societies within the College
8. Employability for graduate and post-grad students

A lot of work has already commenced on these points, and I will continue to share updates with you on my progress.

As you all know, I cannot do it alone so please reach out to me with your ideas and suggestions. Please sign up to be a course representative for your course too. Being a Course Rep is an interesting way to get involved; I started my own journey that way!

I look forward to engaging with you all. Feel free to send me an email.

How can I be heard?

If you have issues relating to your course experience, you can pass these onto your Course Rep who will then take them to University staff to try and solve them. Find your Course Rep. If you don't have a Course Rep and fancy being one yourself then you can sign up to Become a Rep.

We know there are ongoing issues with student placements - if you'd like, you can share any experiences with us via Union Voice so that we can continue working on your behalf. You can also take a look at our Trending Topics to stay up to date with what we are doing for you, based on your feedback.

Rep of the Month

We want to celebrate our Course Reps! If you know someone who has done an amazing job this month in their role as Course Rep, or think you have yourself, then we want to hear from you. Nominate someone to be our Rep of the Month and they'll be in with a chance of winning a £10 Amazon voucher.

Applications for October close on 31st of this month!

Have a great day 😊
